

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
AT LOUISVILLE

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 3:06MJ-230
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

PLAINTIFF,

vs.

STEVEN D. GREEN,

DEFENDANT.

ORDER

Defendant Steven D. Green having moved the Court to preserve evidence, and the Court being sufficiently advised,

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the United States be, and it hereby is, ordered to properly maintain and preserve all documents, records, information, and other evidence of any kind or nature—directly admissible or otherwise—which are in its possession, custody, or control and which could be potentially necessary or helpful to the proper resolution of the above-styled action, including, but not limited to:

1. Evidence of any kind or nature or records of information arguably subject to disclosure, discovery, inspection, or subpoena pursuant to FRCrP 6(e), 7(f), 16(a)(1), and 17.

2. Evidence of any kind or nature or records of information arguably subject to production or disclosure at trial pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3500, FRCrP 26.2, FRE 612 or 613(a).

3. Evidence of any kind or nature or records of information arguably favorable or useful to the defendant under the principles of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the United States be, and it hereby is, ordered to provide to counsel for the defendant a list of all documents, records, information, or other evidence of any kind or nature relevant or otherwise pertaining to this case which has been destroyed or otherwise altered in any form or manner for whatever reason prior to the entry of this order, including but not limited to, rough notes of interviews, reports, memoranda, subpoenaed documents, and other documents.
