UNITED STATES' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Comes the United States of America, by counsel, and moves the Court for a brief extension of time for the parties to submit either an agreed upon jury questionnaire or to submit their respective proposed jury questionnaires. The deadline currently set by the Court for the parties to submit an agreed jury questionnaire is December 5, 2008. The undersigned has conferred with counsel for the defendant, Steven D. Green, who advised that defense counsel had been working on a proposed jury questionnaire which they would submit to the United States for consideration. The United States has also been working on questions for a proposed jury questionnaire. At this time, however, neither party has had an opportunity to review the questions proposed by the other. Accordingly, the United States respectfully requests an extension of time of two weeks, until Friday, December 19, 2008, for the parties to either submit a jury questionnaire upon which they have agreed, or, in the alternative and if no agreement can be reached, for each party to submit a proposed set of questions to be posed to the panel of prospective jurors for consideration by the Court.
