

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
PADUCAH DIVISION
CASE NO. 5:06CR-19 -R

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLAINTIFF

V.

STEVEN D. GREEN

DEFENDANT

ORDER

A telephonic further proceeding was held on November 13, 2007.

Appearances:

For the plaintiff: Marisa J. Ford, AUSA
James R. Lesousky, Jr., AUSA
Brian D. Skaret, U.S. Dept of Justice
For the defendant: Scott T. Wendelsdorf, Federal Defender
Patrick J. Boudlin, Assistant Federal Defender
Darren C. Wolff, CJA Appointed Counsel

Regina McBride, Official Court Reporter, recorded the proceedings.

The parties discussed scheduling issues. The parties have been attempting to resolve discovery matters. Counsel for Defendant stated he had outstanding discovery issues he needed to discuss with the United States. The United States indicated that the needed security clearance checks should be completed within two weeks.

All parties agreed a trial date is needed. There was disagreement as to the date. The parties stated that further discussion between them is necessary. The Court agreed.

The Court directed the parties to exchange position papers on issues of discovery and schedules. Counsel then must meet to attempt to resolve any disagreements.

An in person further proceedings is scheduled for November 27, 2007 in Louisville, Kentucky at 4:00 p.m. EST. On or before November 23, 2007, the parties shall submit a joint position statement which sets forth all resolved and unresolved discovery issues. As to the parties unresolved discovery matters, the parties shall summarize their arguments in support of their positions. In addition, the joint position statements shall provide a proposed schedule identifying said issues that require a deadline date and which should be included in the order. As to those dates or scheduling issues on which the parties are unable to agree, the parties shall include their suggested arguments in support of their position.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

cc: Counsel/AUSA
U.S. Probation
U.S. Marshal

0 42