WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
PADUCAH DIVISION
CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 5:06CR-19 -R

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLAINTIFF

V.

STEVEN D. GREEN

DEFENDANT

ORDER

A telephonic conference was set for Noon on December 5, 2007. Due to the an unexpected scheduling conflict, counsel contacted the Court at an earlier time. Appearing for the United States was Marisa J. Ford and appearing for the Defendant was Assistant Federal Defender, Patrick Bouldin. The official court reporter was Regina McBride.

The parties confirmed that there are ongoing discovery discussions, which may require motions and Court determination. Despite best efforts, the parties disagree on a trial date. The disagreement centers on substantive Speedy Trial issues. Both parties agreed this issue should be briefed.

IT IS ORDERED the United States shall file its brief by Noon, Friday, December 7, 2007. The Defendant shall file his brief by Noon, Tuesday, December 11, 2007.

An in person further proceedings is set for Thursday December 13, 2007 at 4:00 p.m. EST in Louisville, Kentucky. The Defendant shall be present. The Court will hear arguments on the trial date issue at that time.
